"It may be the will of Heaven that America shall suffer calamities still more wasting & distresses yet more dreadful. If this is to be the case, it will have this good effect, at least: it will inspire us with many virtues, which we have not, & correct many errors, follies, & vices, which threaten to disturb, dishonor, & destroy us. The furnace of affliction produces refinement, in states as well as individuals. And the new governments we are assuming, in every part, will require a purification from our vices, & an augmentation of our virtues or there will be no blessings... But I must submit all my hopes & fears to an overruling Providence; in which, unfashionable as the faith may be, I firmly believe." ~ John Adams, July 3, 1776
