COFFEE & ROLLS after the Sunday Marion Mass is on a roll! Apologies for running out of donuts this first Sunday, there was uncertainty as to how many would make the long walk from the church to the hall in the cold, plus there was no PSR as in the past, PLUS some people are afraid of being around others due to Covid. To remedy this, there will be twice the amount of donuts this Sunday as last week. Quentin Stuchlik is organizing quite the donut brigade, such that a volunteer will only have to serve in this ministry every 6 to 8 weeks. The tasks are pretty simple: every Sunday some one needs to pick up the donuts from Carlson's, make the coffee, set up and clean up. To sign up to help, please contact Quentin Stuchlik at 620.798.8154.

Since there is no PSR on Sundays, this would be a great ministry to do as a family to teach your youngsters about stewardship of time.

Hallow Don’t forget to download the “Hallow” app for your mobile device! From now until Easter Sunday you will receive FULL access to ALL content from “Hallow” for free! “Hallow” is a Catholic and prayer meditation app. From Father Mike Schmitz’s homilies and “Bible in a Year”, to Jeff Cavins daily reflections, to Bishop Robert Barron’s Sunday homilies, as well as Sister Miriam and Dr. Scott Hahn, there is something for everyone to help deepen your prayer life. Hallow provides Catholic music, novenas, the rosary, daily mass readings and “Hallow” kids content. There are handouts in the back of the three churches with more information. Just scan the barcode to get started! Need help? Contact Theresa Cady at 620-382-7216 for more info or to help download to your phone.

HOME AT LAST T-SHIRTS have arrived! They can be picked up in the Pilsen church basement on Tuesdays or Fridays from 1-4pm, or contact Harriet Bina at 620.381.1689. Cash or check only please.
