A NOTE FROM FR. ISAAC

Going to Confession is not the only way we should prepare ourselves for Divine Mercy Sunday. As Cardinal Francis Macharski, Archbishop of Cracow, Poland, explains in a 1985 pastoral letter, we are not simply called to ask for God’s mercy with trust. We are also called to be merciful: “Our own merciful attitude is likewise a preparation. Without deeds of mercy, our devotion would not be real. For Christ does not only reveal the mercy of God, but at the same time He places before people the demand that they conduct themselves in life with love and mercy. The Holy Father states that this requirement constitutes the very heart of the Gospel ethos (Rich in Mercy, 3) — it is the commandment of love and the promise: ‘Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy’ (Mt 5:7). Let it be a mercy that is forgiving and true, and universal, with good words, deeds, and prayer for others!”

Our Lord’s words to St. Faustina about this requirement to be merciful are very strong and leave no room for misinterpretation: Yes, the first Sunday after Easter is the Feast of Mercy, but there must also be acts of mercy. ... I demand from you deeds of mercy, which are to arise out of love for Me. You are to show mercy to your neighbors always and everywhere. You must not shrink from this or try to excuse or absolve yourself from it (742).

"If every one of us, every day, does a work of mercy, there will be a revolution in the world!"--Pope Francis

DIGITAL ACCESS TO MAGNIFICAT

Good news: The Magnificat can be accessed online! Bad news: Bulk subscriptions, which is what Holy Family Parish does, can't use this digital access as part of the bulk price. However, a trial subscription to digital access is $5 for 6 months. This subscription has to be purchased online at Magnificat.com/trial. Also, to use it, one has to download the app, since it doesn't work well in a browser. After the 6 month trial, the digital subscription can be continued for $20/year. Digital access can also be purchased month by month within the app as needed for $1.99/month. For instance, if you're on vacation and don't want to bring your book, or if you lost your book for the month, digital access can help out.
