A NOTE FROM FR. ISAAC

A year ago Fr. Isaac begged us to pray for him with these words from his first homily:

Through Jesus, with him, and in him, approach the Father and ask Emil to teach me how to fearlessly offer my life as the servant of you all, who are servants. Ask Joseph to help me be strong and gentle like a father. Ask Mary to share with me her poverty, so that I can be surprised, every day, by the concrete presence of the Risen One. Come Creator Spirit. Come through Mary.

He repeats his plea.

A LASTING PROMISE is a relationship and marriage program built on Christian teaching about marriage. This unique program is being offered for Holy Family Parish married couples. The second session will be Feb. 10. Interest cards with more information are available in the pews. Please put them in the collection basket in the back of the church. For more information call Terry Vinduska, 620-381-1298.

POPE FRANCIS TWEETS: Today, as at the time of Herod, the evil that opposes God's light hatches its plots in the shadows of hypocrisy and concealment. How much violence and killing takes place amid deafening silence, unbeknownst to many!

Contemplative women are the voice of the Church as she ceaselessly praises, thanks, implores, and intercedes for all humanity. Their prayer makes them co-workers of God. May we show our gratitude and tangible support for them.
