POPE FRANCIS TWEETS: Over 360 million Christians around the world experience persecution and discrimination because of their faith. More and more of them are being forced to flee their homelands. Peace also requires the protection of religious freedom.

The voracity with which we have been devouring the resources of the planet for a few centuries now is compromising everyone's future. We have pounced on everything, aiming at becoming masters of all things, even though they were entrusted to our stewardship.

Civilian victims of war are not "collateral damage." They are men and women with names and surnames, who lose their lives. They are children who are orphaned and deprived of their future. They are individuals who suffer from hunger, thirst and cold, or are left mutilated.
