FROM ROSE, HFP PARISH LIFE ADMINISTRATOR: In Ecclesiastes 3:1-8, we read that there is a time for every-thing... and that includes stepping down and retiring.

One of the many pastors I worked for always told me, “It’s not a job, it’s a ministry, to serve God’s people.”

Working for God through the Catholic Church by serving Holy Family Parish has been a soul-fulfilling experience. It has helped me live my faith in a close-up, magnified kind of way, since everything in my work day is tied back to Him. Sure, you’re supposed to bring Jesus with you throughout your day no matter where you are or what you’re doing, but it’s different when you’re being paid to focus on Him, His teachings, His Bible. I learned a lot about our parish, our diocese, and the global Catholic Church by working in a church office.

One of the benefits of working for the parish, besides feeling closer to God than in a business office, is getting to know so many wonderful people. I have always felt loved and supported by pastors and parishioners alike. I have also gotten to know many wonderful fellow Catho-lics throughout the diocese.

Stepping away from the church office was a hard decision to make. I kept putting it off because I know I will miss it and have regrets. There’s so much about this chapter of my life that was a blessing, that I will dearly miss, but it is time. My body is telling me it is time.

As I think back over the years that I have worked in this position, I have so many good memories, but the best part is seeing where God’s hand guided me, which I couldn’t tell at the time. He’s always been there for me and I know He always will be.

P.S. I won’t be gone-gone, i.e., officially retired, for 2-3 months as we find the right person and also get them trained.

Everything Has Its Time Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

For everything there is a season,
and a time for every matter under heaven:
a time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;
a time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to break down, and a time to build up;
a time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
a time to throw away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
a time to seek, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to throw away;
a time to tear, and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
a time to love, and a time to hate;
a time for war, and a time for peace.
