EMBER DAYS

For many centuries, the Church kept three days near the beginning of the spring, summer, fall, and winter seasons as times of special penance and intercession. Ember days are not part of the present calendar, but local Churches may set aside appropriate days for fasting, works of charity, and prayer.

Households may wish to observe seasonal penitential days that focus on sins that are all too prevalent in the contemporary world. As a parish family, we will observe the Ember Days four times a year.

Ember days for the fall season are:

Wed.-Fri., Sept. 10-13.

I propose a screen fast. For three days, don't use a screen except for an emergency and during work hours if your occupation so demands, of course. Offer the fast through Jesus, with Jesus, in Jesus to the Father for the unity of our parish family, the unity among our families, and the unity of the world.

~ Fr. Isaac
