won when fathers entrust their vocations, marriages, and families to St. Joseph, who entrusts all to Mary, who entrusts all of us to Jesus, who affords us union with the Father. Register, using

PREPARING FOR EASTER WITH LENT

During these Lenten days we should very carefully keep our life pure, and at the same time atone for the shortcomings of other times. We should busy ourselves with fervent prayer, spiritual reading, contrition of heart, and self-denial; bring sacrifices freely and beyond our usual obligation to our loving God in the joy of the Holy Spirit; and thus, while we abstain somewhat from food and drink, from sleep, talking and jesting, we await the holy feast of Easter with a joy and desire that the spirit of God awakens in us. ~ St. Benedict

JEST KIDDING: You know you're getting old when you stoop to tie your shoes and wonder what else you can do while you're down there.

cese at the Man Fully Alive Conference, March 30, at Kapaun-Mt. Carmel High School to listen to some of the most respected national Catholic alive in this modern world. Register at Church Regulations Regarding Fast and Abstinence Abstinence from meat (beast or fowl) is to be observed by all Catholics 14 years & older on Ash Wednesday & on all Fridays of Lent. This obligation prohibits eating meat, but not eggs, milk products, or condiments, even though made from animal fat. Fasting means limiting oneself to one full meal on a fast day. Catholics who are 18 years old but not yet 59 years are obliged to fast on Ash Wednesday & Good Friday. On fast days, two additional smaller meals are permitted if necessary to maintain strength. However, the two smaller meals together may not equal one full meal. Also, eating solid foods between meals on fast days is not permitted.

LENTEN BIBLE STUDY: Why do we suffer so much in this life?
What is the purpose and meaning of our trials? How can we find hope and healing amidst our sorrow? Dr. Bob Schuchts, Founder and President of the John Paul II Healing Center, seeks to answer these difficult questions in a new 4-part series by Saint Benedict Press: Real Suffering: Finding Hope and Healing in the Trials of Life. Suffering is something that touches everyone from the poor to the powerful. It can lead to doubts about God's love, and can leave hearts unhappy for a lifetime. But it doesn't have to be this way. What if suffering was the catalyst to our union with Christ? Drawing on decades of experience as a Marriage and Family Therapist, as well as on his own personal crosses, Dr. Schuchts expertly and compassionately examines the complex nature of human suffering. Dissecting the three basic categories of human trial—physical pain, emotional loss, and spiritual guilt—he shows the underlying purpose of our sorrows and helps us to see how, if we bear our crosses with faith, they can be a means for us to draw closer to God. The class will be offered at Marion after Friday Stations, and at Pilsen on Tuesdays, see sidebar. The class can also be taken at home using the books and accessing the class videos online at any time. Contact the office for materials & to sign up for child care.
